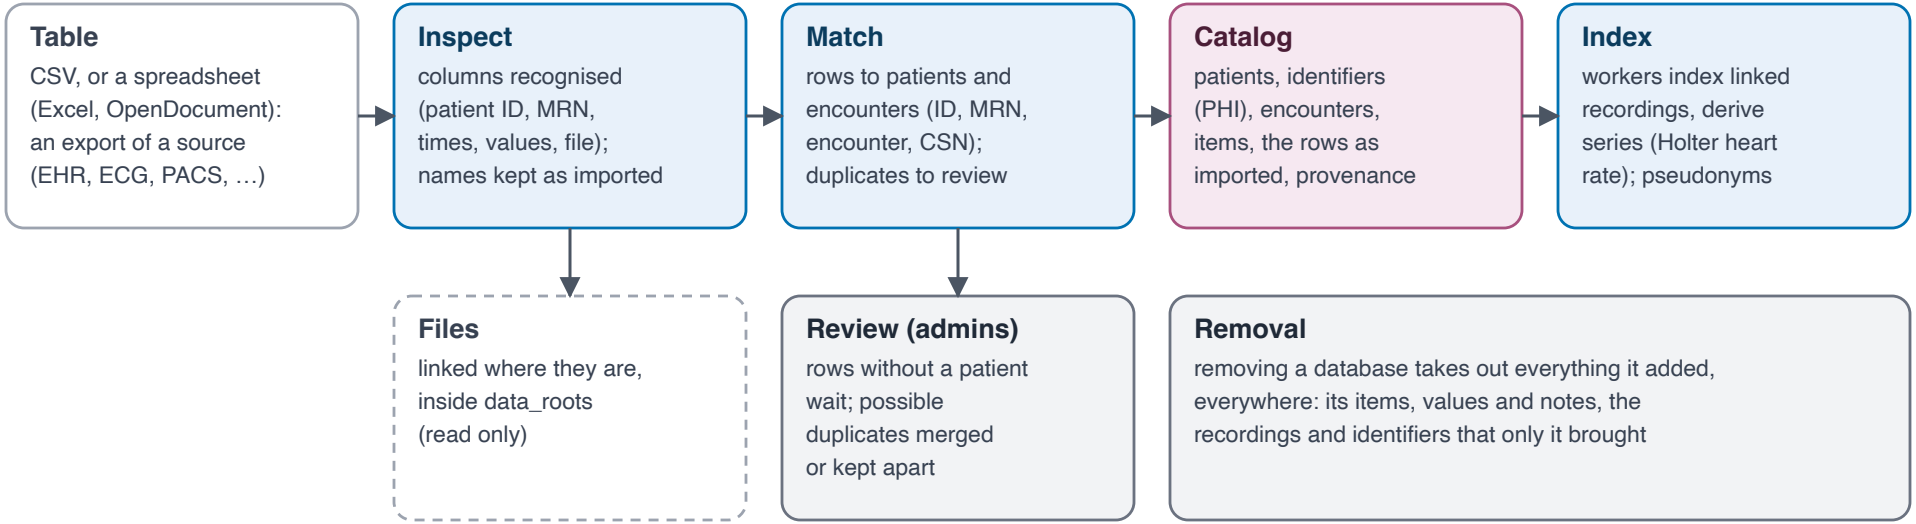
Importing a database: the only way in

A file always comes with the row that names its patient. Nothing is written where the data lie.



Requirements for each table: docs/importing.md. Identifiers stay in the catalog's identifier tables; every import and removal is audited.